NONE OF THAT SLOW STUFF.

TRACKRAT IS FOR AUSTIN'S MOST AMBITIOUS

First-timers, weekend warriors, former D1 athletes, founders, operators, creatives and investors. Different starting lines, same mentality. Every Sunday morning and Thursday evening we meet on the track, sprint and grow together.

TRACKRAT Invitational had one non-negotiable. Net proceeds went back to the community that hosts us. We kept the athlete fee low so no one was priced out, brought together clubs from Austin, Dallas and San Antonio, and let spectators in free. When ticket sales came up short, we covered the costs and the donation ourselves.

Putting on TRACKRAT Invitational cost $3,302.94. Entry fees brought in $2,056.59 after Sweatpals' platform fees, which left a $1,246.35 shortfall. TRACKRAT Invitational organizers covered it out of pocket, then sent Marshall Middle School a $1,000.00 donation on top.
